Parade Information, Rules and Regulations

THEME: Celebrating our 25th Anniversary

No entry fee is required, but all entries must be registered prior to the parade for insurance purposes.

Your completed, signed and submitted, application form is your acceptance on behalf of your entry and all participants of these rules of participation.

1. SAFETY FIRST. All floats or vehicles must be accompanied by walkers if any candy or other favours are given out. There will be NO throwing of candy or other objects allowed. This is for the safety of all, please do not contravene this rule.
2. The Parade Committee will determine the order and location of your entry in the parade. Due consideration will be given to all but please remain in the order as assigned.
3. All floats with riders will have an adequate guard rail or other barrier to keep riders safe. Your float or vehicle must come to a complete stop if you need to exchange riders for walkers or vice versa.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING:

I have read the regulations and rules of the High River and District Chamber of Commerce (hereinafter referred to as HRDCC). I, the undersigned, on behalf of the business, organization or individual represented by this entry, accept the rules and regulations as stated and agree to abide by all direction and/or decisions of the Parade Committee regarding our entry and participation in the parade. It is my responsibility to make these rules available to all participants involved with this entry. I further agree that neither the HRDCC nor any of its directors, officers employees or volunteers will be held liable for any injury to any persons and/or damage to any property in connection with the Parade and related activities, including but not limited to setup, participation or dispersal. I further agree, that I hereby grant the HRDCC and its legal representatives the irrevocable and unrestricted rights to use and publish photographs or video of this entry and the entry's participants for editorial trade, advertising and any other purposes, in any manner or medium.
